No. 18-2-09076-3

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION
COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

Plaintiff claims against Defendants as follows:

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1.1. Plaintiffs Michael W. Garwick and Matthew A. Granstrom, individually and on behalf of all similarly situated current and former employees of Veterans Independent Enterprises of Washington bring this action for money damages and statutory penalties for violations of the Washington's Minimum Wage Act ("MWA"), RCW 49.46, Wage Payment Act ("WPA"), RCW 49.48 and Wage Rebate Act ("WRA"), RCW 49.52.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2.1. The Superior Court of Washington has jurisdiction of Plaintiff's claims pursuant to RCW 2.08.010.

2.2. Venue in Pierce County is appropriate pursuant to RCW 4.12.025.

2.3. All acts and omissions alleged in this Complaint took place in the State of Washington and Pierce County.

III. PARTIES

3.1. Defendant Veterans Independent Enterprises of Washington, hereafter “VIEW” provides employment and transitional and permanent housing to Veterans in King and Pierce Counties. VIEW is an “employer” for purposes of the MWA, WPA and WRA.

3.2. Defendant Donald Hutt, hereafter "Hutt" is a governor of VIEW and has both authority and supervisory authority over the calculation and payment of wages by VIEW. Hutt is an "employer" for purposes of the MWA, WPA and WRA.

3.3. Defendant Gary Peterson, hereafter "Peterson" is a governor of VIEW and has both authority and supervisory authority over the calculation and payment of wages by VIEW. Peterson is an "employer" for purposes of the MWA, WPA and WRA.

3.4. Plaintiff Michael Garwick, hereafter "Garwick", is a resident of Tacoma, Washington, a disabled Veteran and a former employee of defendants. He is also a tenant of defendant VIEW.

3.5. Plaintiff Matthew Granstrom, hereafter “Granstrom”, is a resident of Tacoma, Washington, a disabled Veteran and a former employee of defendants. He is also a tenant of defendant VIEW.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

4.1. Plaintiffs and members of the putative class are or were employed in various positions at VIEW's Fife location at 4630 16th St E Suite B-16 and its new location in University Place, WA.

4.2. Plaintiffs and members of the putative class were regularly not paid on the established pay dates, but rather paid late, short paid or not paid at all.

4.3. Plaintiffs and members of the putative class were allowed, encouraged and implicitly threatened to volunteer for VIEW performing the same duties as they performed as employees or performing other duties normally performed by employees of VIEW but were not paid for the time worked.

4.4. Plaintiff Garwick and other members of the putative class entered into written agreements whereby in lieu of paying previously unpaid wages due at the time, Defendants would instead pay additional wages on each future paycheck to compensate. Defendants subsequently did not pay the agreed wages.

4.5. Defendants agreed to pay out accrued paid time off at separation; however, Plaintiffs and members of the putative were not paid for their accrued paid time off.

4.6. Defendants were financially benefited when they deducted amounts for rent, program fees and other related fees from wages of Plaintiffs and members of the putative class.

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5.1. Plaintiffs seek to represent all past and current employees of Defendants

5.2. This action is properly maintainable as a class action under CR 23(a) and (b)(3).

5.3. Pursuant to CR 23(a)(1), it is impracticable to join all of the members of the class as defined herein as named plaintiffs.

5.4. Pursuant to CR 23(a)(2), there are common questions of law and fact, including, but not limited to, whether Defendants paid late, short paid or failed to pay members of the class for all hours worked or “volunteered,” whether Defendants made illegal deductions from class members’ pay for rent, program fees or other items in violation of WAC 296-126-028(3), whether Defendants failed to pay class members for accrued paid time off at separation consistent with its agreement with Plaintiffs and whether Defendants acted willfully and with the intent of depriving members of the class of wages or other compensation.

5.5. Pursuant to CR 23(a)(3), the named Plaintiffs' wage and hour claims are typical of the claims of all class members and of Defendants' anticipated defenses thereto.

5.6. The named Plaintiffs and their counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class as required by CR 23(a)(4).

5.7. Pursuant to CR 23(b)(3), class certification is appropriate here because common questions of law or fact common to members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and because a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

VI. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION – FAILURE TO PAY WAGES FOR ALL HOURS WORKED IN VIOLATION OF THE WASHINGTON MINIMUM WAGE ACT

6.1. Plaintiffs restate and reallege the allegations set forth in all preceding paragraphs.

6.2. At times where Defendants did not pay class members for all hours worked, Defendants have violated the Washington State Minimum Wage Act, RCW 49.46.010 et seq.

6.3. At times where Defendants allowed, encouraged, or implicitly coerced Plaintiffs and members of the putative class to volunteer performing the same duties as they performed as employees or performing other duties normally performed by employees, Defendants have violated the Washington State Minimum Wage Act, RCW 49.46.010 et seq. by failing to pay Plaintiffs for wages.

ACT AND WAGE REBATE ACT

4 8.3. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions, Plaintiffs and members of the 5 putative class have been damaged in amounts as will be proven at trial.

7 IX. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION – WILLFUL WITHHOLDING OF WAGES IN 8 VIOLATION OF RCW 49.52

9 9.1. Plaintiffs restate and reallege the allegations set forth in all preceding paragraphs.

10 9.2. By the foregoing, Defendants' actions are presumed to be and do constitute
